

The City of Temecula Community Services Department Presents

Perfect for teens who love movies and want to bring their own stories to life!

TEEN

ALL NEW CLASSES for 2026

For Students 11-17 yrs

SCREENWRITING

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS

6:15pm - 7:45pm

in the Ronald H. Roberts Temecula Public Library Technology Homework Center

UPCOMING SESSIONS: No Prerequisites - Mix and Match - Join Any Session You Like

January 7 to February 11

STORY LENGTH:

How to Make a Script Fit Your Idea

Unravel how story size shapes everything from pacing to payoff, helping you match your creative idea to its ideal screen time — feature, short film, or just one scene.

BUILDING PLOT:

Keeping All Your Scenes Moving

Learn how to make your plot twist, climb, and explode with energy, using turning points that grab attention and tension that never fades.

February 25 to April 1

April 15 to May 20

A QUESTION OF THEME:

What's It Really About?

Learn how to turn raw emotion and big ideas into cinematic moments that make audiences feel something real. Uncover how to say something that truly matters in your story.

MORE NEW CLASSES COMING in the Summer & Fall 2026 - Stay Tuned!

Lessons, Writing Time & Table Reads Every Session!

Register Online:
TemeculaCA.gov/TCS
Or call the Class Hotline: 951-694-6480

$92
per Six-Week Session